From the Paris Letter, dated Sept. 24.

Paris, Sept. 24.

THE Advices from Madrid of the 11th of this Month tell us, that 50000 Rations of Biſcuit was order'd to be provided in Eſtramadura; and that the Troops had receiv'd Order to hold themſelves ready to march at the firſt Command, to open the Autumn Campaign and Penetrate into Portugal. They write from Valencia, that the Miquelets do not appear any where in that Kingdom in any great Number, moſt of them being return'd to their Habitations; and that the Forces appointed for the Siege of Denia are in Motion that Way. The Armies in Catalonia continue in the ſame Camps; and the Duke of Orleans's Foragers extend themſelves pretty far into the Enemy's Country without any Oppoſition. His Royal Highneſs has ſent Detachments towards Balaguer, and into the Parts adjacent to the Mountains, to hinder the Excurſions of the Miquelets on that Side: And the Count d' Eſtain is march'd on ſome Enterprize with the Regiment of Courtebonne and the Battallion of Perrigord. So great a Number of Deſerters have come over to our Army, that 'tis reckon'd the Enemy's is diminiſh'd above a fourth Part. The Count de Montezuma, Duke and Lord of Atriſco, is dead in the 68th Year of his Age. He was Preſident of the Council of the Indies. 'Tis reported at Court, that he will be ſucceeded in that Office by the Marquis de Bedmar, formerly Governour General of the Netherlands, and lately Viceroy of Sicily.

Rome, Sept. 6. The Pope has rais'd the Denomination of the Value of his Coyn 8 per Cent, and the new Coyns are 6 in the Hundred of a baſer Alloy than the old. This, with the Impoſition of unuſual Taxes, occaſions great Murmuring here among the Populace. Yeſterday General Marſigli ſet out from hence for Aſcoli, whence he will go and view the Places on the Coaſt of the Adriatick, and ſo proceed to Faenza, which is appointed for a Place of Arms; The Pope's Galleys are arriv'd at Civita-Vecchia, with Arms, Officers, and Soldiers from Avignon. The Marſhal de Theſſe, who is ſpeedily expected here with the Character of Ambaſſador extraordinary from the King of France, will, 'tis ſaid, make his Holineſs an Offer of Auxiliary Forces; but of what Nation is not yet known. This Court appears more and more determin'd to hearken to no Propoſals of Accommodation with the Emperour, before the Germans withdraw out of the Eccleſiaſtical Territories. The Reduction of the Iſland of Sardinia to the Obedience of King Charles III, is very unwelcome News to this Court.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 28.

Florence, Sept. 3. Our Duke has given Orders for putting all his Frontier Places into a Condition of Defence, and the raiſing of Men is continued throughout his Dominions; but with what Deſign is not yet certainly known. The Duke de Vittallini cauſes his Palace to be fitted up very magnificently for the Marſhal de Theſſe, who is expected here within a Fortnight from Genoa. This Court ſeems determin'd not to Submit to the giving any Quarters this Winter to foreign Troops. Laſt Saturday a Placard was publiſh'd ſtrictly forbidding the Exportation of Arms and Horſes.

Venice, Sept. 15. Letters from Ferrara tell us, Orders were come thither from Rome not to ſuffer the Imperialiſts to come any more into that City, as they have hitherto been allow'd ſince they enter'd the Ferrareze; and to admit none but their Women and Surlers, and of them no more than 12 Perſons at a Time. The Inhabitants of Longaſtrino drove the Imperialiſts out of Argenta and Ottellato the 7 th and 8th Inſtant, killing 27 Men and taking 40 Horſes. Moſt of the Communities in the Bologneſe are in Arms in the Neighbourhood of San Proſpero, whence they oblig'd a German Captain with 40 Horſe to retire, without doing them any Hurt. Some of the Pope's Officers having Notice that 4 Veſſels laden with Ammunition and Cannon, were coming from Mantua down the Po to Comacchio, under a Guard of a Captain and 150 Grenadiers, ſent ſome Grenadiers by Land and put ſome into Barks on the River, who attack'd the Imperialiſts at the Bridge of Lagoſcuro, ſiez'd the Veſſels and wounded the Captain. The Wives and Children of the Cuſtom-houſe Officers who are ſent to the Galleys, for inſulting the Livery of the Earl of Mancheſter, making their humble Application to his Excellency to obtain their Liberty, his Excellency will, 'tis ſaid, go to our Regents on Monday next, to intercede for their Diſcharge.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 28.

Toulon, Sept. 12. Men are kept at Work here Day and Night, to fit out 10 Men of War, viz. 4 of 70, 4 of 56, and 2 of 40 Guns. 'Tis reported that this Squadron, with the Galleys of Marſeilles, is deſign'd for Sicily. All the new Fortifications about this City are finiſh'd, and furniſh'd with Cannon. We have an Account that the Marſhal de Theſſe, ſent with an important Commiſſion to ſeveral Courts of Italy, is ſail'd from Antibes for Genoa.

Vienna, Sept. 12. M. Berczedi, a General of the Hungarian Malecontents, had been aſſur'd by Field-Marſhal-General Heiſter of the Emperour's Pardon; and thereupon deſign'd to come over to the Imperial Army: But his Deſign being diſcover'd, he was ſiez'd by his own Men at Guntz. It was reported, that 500 Hungarian Horſe who carry'd him off, were overtaken by a Detachment ſent after them by General Heiſter, and that he was reſcu'd: But we have certain Advice to the contrary, and that he was carry'd to the Caſtle of Simeg, till a ſtrong Detachment ſhould come to fetch him from thence to Prince Ragotski, from whom he is like to find no Mercy. In the mean Time this Defection of M. Oskay and Berezedi occaſions great Diſtruſt and Jealouſy one of another, among the Chiefs as well as the vulgar Sort of the Malecontents.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Sept. 29.

Vienna, Sept. 15. Conferences are daily held touching the Difference between our Court and that of Rome, and Expreſſes to and fro on that Subject are frequent. In the mean while the Duke of Modena is very urgent with this Court to aſſiſt him in aſſerting his Rights to the Dutchy of Ferrara: This Court will govern themſelves in that Matter, according to the Succeſs of the Negotiations of the Marquis de Prie at the Court of Rome; for, if an Accomodation can be made on honourable and equitable Terms, 'twill be welcome; if not, the Imperial Troops which are now in Piemont, will be order'd to approach the Eccleſiaſtical State. Prince Ragotski and Count Berezeni, have caus'd General Bezeredi and 20 of his Officers who intended to have gone over into the Emperour's Service, to be impal'd; and are proceeding rigorouſly againſt all others whom they ſuſpect of the like Deſign. Neuheuſel is block'd up, and now and then a Bomb is thrown thrown in, but 'tis propos'd to get Poſſeſſion of that Place by Intelligence; 'tis hop'd alſo that many of the Malecontents will lay hold of the Emperour's Amnetty, and come over to us, the rather becauſe above 100 noble Families have already come in to Trentſchin, and aſſure us that others are diſpos'd to follow their Example and return to the Emperour's Obedience. Of our Detachment which was ſent to reſcue Buzeredi, 2000 Raſcians and 200 Horſe were cut off by the Malecontents.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Sept. 28.

Sarlouis, Sept. 18. The Detachment made from the Army of the two Crowns on the upper Rhine for the Neiburg Lines, paſs'd the Sarre at Saralbe the 16th, and took their Way towards Thionville, there to paſs the Moſelle, and to continue their March through the Country of Luxemburg to the Sambre.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 28.

From the Camp of the Elector of Hanover at Muhlberg, Sept. 22. We are not certainly inform'd yet whether the French have ſent a Detachment to Flanders. Their Infantry continue encamp'd in their Lines behind the Lutter; but their Cavalry is mov'd up higher, and is cantoon'd between Haguenau and Saarlouis; and the Elector of Bavaria's Troops are canton'd in the Neighbourhood of Zabern. Our Cavalry which lately paſs'd the Rhine, continue in the Neighbourhood of Landau.

Portſmouth, Sept. 22. This Day Sir George Byng with a Squadron of Men of War, and a Fleet of outward-bound Merchant Ships, came to Spithead from the Downes.

In Yeſterday's Courant, the 4th Line of the third Column, for double Canal read double Tenaille.
